1. Other disposition includes: default judgments, time limit expired, transferred to another court and other disposition event.

2. A disposition is a court event that disposes part or all of the civil case (e.g., settlement, interim judgment and judgment).

3. Cases may have more than one type of disposition associated with it.

4. Nunavut has only one level of court, the Nunavut Court of Justice, which combines the power of the superior trial court and the territorial court.
