REGISTRATIONS OF DOMAIN NAMES; TRANSFERS, RENEWALS, MODIFICATIONS AND CANCELLATIONS OF DOMAIN NAME REGISTRATIONS BY THE REGISTRANT; CHANGES OF REGISTRARS

2.1 Registrations of Domain Names.

(1) The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that applications for the registration of a Domain Name shall be made to CIRA only by the Registrant’s Registrar on behalf of the Registrant in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP.

(2) Complete applications for the registration of a Domain Name shall be processed by CIRA and Domain Names shall be registered by CIRA, in each case in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP. CIRA, in its sole discretion, shall have the right to reject any application for the registration of a Domain Name and refuse to register any Domain Name for any reason whatsoever with no liability of CIRA whatsoever to the Registrant, the Registrant’s Registrar or any other Person. CIRA will give notice to the Registrant’s Registrar by email if CIRA so rejects such application.

(3) The Registrant shall, in each application for registration of a Domain Name, through the Registrant’s Registrar, select a registration period for the registration of a Domain Name from one (1) to ten (10) years from the date of the registration of the Domain Name (the “Registration Period”). CIRA may, at its option, extend the Registration Period of any Domain Name Registration for such further period as CIRA may determine, at no additional charge to the Registrant’s Registrar, by giving notice to the Registrant and the Registrant’s Registrar.

2.2 Renewals, Transfers, Modifications, Cancellations and Other Transactions.

(1) The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that a renewal, transfer, modification or cancellation of, and any other request or transaction with respect to, a Domain Name Registration shall be made only by the Registrant's Registrar with respect to such Domain Name Registration on behalf of the Registrant in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP in force at the time of receipt by CIRA of any completed application or request for the renewal, transfer, modification or cancellation of a Domain Name Registration or other request or transaction with respect to a Domain Name Registration.

(2) The Registration Period of any Domain Name Registration may be renewed for a period of one to ten years as selected by the Registrant through the Registrant's Registrar in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP.

(3) The Registrant shall not be permitted to transfer the Domain Name Registration to another Registrant or change the Registrar within thirty (30) days from the date of Activation.

2.3 Changes of Registrar.

(1) The Registrant may change its Registrant's Registrar with respect to a Domain Name Registration after thirty (30) days from the date of Activation, at any time in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP. The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that it shall continue to be bound by its obligations under its agreement with its original Registrar in accordance with such agreement.

(2) In the event that a Registrant's Registrar is no longer a Registrar, has had its certification as a Registrar suspended, revoked or terminated, or in the event the registrar agreement between CIRA and the Registrant's Registrar (the "Registrar Agreement") is terminated or expires, the Registrant shall be responsible for changing such Registrant's Registrar to a new Registrar in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP within thirty (30) days of the earlier of notice thereof being given to the Registrant by (i) the Registrant's Registrar or (ii) CIRA in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP; provided, however, that if any of the Registrant's Domain Name Registrations are scheduled to expire within thirty (30) days of the giving of such notice, then the Registrant shall have an additional thirty (30) days from the anniversary date of such registration to register with a new Registrar. The Registrant shall cooperate with CIRA in connection with such verification which shall be conducted in such manner as is deemed reasonable by CIRA and in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP and shall give and shall cause the Registrant's Registrar to give, CIRA and its agents and representatives such assistance and access to and copies of such information and documents in any or all media regarding, and access to the premises of, the Registrant as CIRA may reasonably request in order to enable CIRA to complete such verification. CIRA shall be responsible for its own expenses incurred in connection with any such verification and the Registrant shall be responsible for any expenses the Registrant or the Registrant's Registrar incurs in complying with this Section 2.4. The Registrant agrees to promptly execute and deliver to CIRA any authorizations required to permit the verifications of CIRA under this Section 2.4. - (d) If CIRA has not received the Requested Information upon the expiry of the suspension period, CIRA will cancel the Domain Name Registration(s) and terminate the Registrant Agreement and send an email to the Registrant and Registrant's Registrar notifying them of the cancellation and termination.

The Registrant may, at any time before the expiry of the suspension period, submit the Requested Information, via the Registrant's Registrar, to CIRA

The Account Information shall be used only by the Registrant, or the Administrative Contact, to confirm the identity of the Registrant to CIRA, in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP. The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that until the Registrant notifies CIRA that the Account Information may have fallen in to the hands of an unauthorized user, the use of the Account Information by any Person is deemed use by the Registrant.

2.6 Registrar As Agent. The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that the Registrant's Registrar is deemed to be authorized to act as the Registrant's agent in connection with Domain Name Registrations, but not the Registrant's CIRA membership. Further, the Registrant acknowledges and agrees that the Registrant's Registrar may, in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP:

- (a) make changes to the Administrative Contact details at any time without having to comply with the change of critical information approval process (as set out in the applicable Registry PRP), provided the Registrant has granted the Registrant's Registrar the authority to do so AND HAS NOT REVOKED SAID AUTHORITY. If the Registrant has two or more Registrars, only one of the Registrant's Registrars may be granted said authority. The Registrant may at any time revoke said authority or provide said authority to another of the Registrant's Registrars;
- (b) cancel the Registrant's Domain Name Registration within seven (7) Days of Activation for whatever reason and without the Registrant's consent; and

The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Contact and any person who uses the Account Information or who sends or receives emails from the Administrative Contact's email address as identified in the Registration Information for a Registrant and Domain Name Registration(s), is authorized by the Registrant to be CIRA's only contact for the Registrant and the Domain Name Registration(s) and is recognized by CIRA and authorized by the Registrant, subject to Article 2.9, to take any and all actions in connection with the Domain Name Registration(s) including, without limitation, transferring it to another Person or obtaining the Account Information for the Registrant or replacement of the Account Information.

2.8 Administrative Contact email Address. The Registrant acknowledges and agrees that all CIRA notices to the Registrant (in this Agreement, the Registry PRP, and CIRA's By-law No.1) will be sent by email to the Registrant's Administrative Contact email address as listed in the Registration Information only. The Registrant further acknowledges and agrees that any reference to notices sent to the "Registrant(s)," "Applicant(s)," or "Member(s)" in this Agreement, the applicable Registry PRP, and CIRA's By-law No. 1 shall mean that the notices will only be sent to the Registrant's Administrative Contact. It is the responsibility of the Registrant to ensure that the Administrative Contact's email address is at all times functional and accurate and to make arrangements with its Administrative Contact to receive any and all notices sent by CIRA to the Registrant's Administrative Contact.

2.9 Registrant's Voting Rights. Regardless of the number of Domain Name Registrations held by a Member (as that term is defined in CIRA's By-law No. 1), Members are entitled to show support for only one Director Nominee for each vacant Director seat; vote only once for each vacant Director seat to be filled in CIRA Elections; and at CIRA Meetings vote only once on matters for which votes are called. That is, the principle of "one Member – one vote” will apply to the exercise of voting rights, as those rights are set out in CIRA’s By-law No. 1 and in the Registry’s PRP. Also, CIRA does not permit proxy voting at Meetings and at CIRA Elections except that Members who are not individuals may vote as described herein. Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Agreement, the Registrar Agreement, or the Registry PRP;

(a) if the Member is an individual, the Member shall be the only person permitted to attend and vote at Meetings and to vote at CIRA Elections. The individual Member may be required to submit a declaration confirming that he/she is the Registrant for the relevant Domain Name Registration(s), in such form as CIRA may require and/or provide photo identification prior to being entitled to vote at CIRA Elections;

(b) if the Member is not an individual, an Authorized Representative of the Member may attend and vote on behalf of the Registrant at Meetings and vote at CIRA Elections. The Authorized Representative may be required to submit a declaration confirming his/her authority to act, in such form as CIRA may require, and/or provide photo identification, prior to being entitled to attend and vote at Meetings and to vote at CIRA Elections. The Authorized Representative may vote at and attend CIRA Meetings and vote in CIRA Elections on behalf of only one Member even if he/she is the Authorized Representative for two or more Members or he/she is also an individual Member him or herself. An individual Member who casts a vote in the capacity of an individual Member may not also act as an Authorized Representative of another Member.

- (a) the Domain Name Registration will not be included in the list of Domain Name Registrations transferred on a daily basis to the Registry's primary domain name server;
- (b) an Internet user will not be able to send an email or access a web page which incorporates such Domain Name Registration;
- (c) CIRA will continue to list such suspended Domain Name Registration in the WHOIS look up system of the Registry and the WHOIS look up system will indicate that the Domain Name Registration has been suspended;
- (d) CIRA may reactivate the suspended Domain Name Registration at any time in its sole discretion; and
- (e) CIRA may extend the period of suspension at any time for such period as CIRA may determine in its sole discretion.

If the Registrant breaches the Registrant's obligations contained in Section 3.1(j) of this Agreement prohibiting the use by Persons other than the Registrant of a Domain Name Registration and the registration of Domain Names by a Registrant as agent for, or on behalf of, any third party:

- (a) CIRA may, in its sole discretion following procedures CIRA deems appropriate from time to time, prohibit the Registrant, by giving five (5) days notice thereof to the Registrant, from registering any new Domain Names for a period of up to three (3) years from the date of such notice; and
- (b) if the Registrant is also a Registrar, the Registrar shall be deemed to have breached its Registrar Agreement with CIRA and CIRA may then revoke the Registrar's certification and terminate the provisions of the Registrar Agreement with CIRA.

6.15 Termination of Agreement by CIRA. CIRA may, in its sole discretion and at its sole option, terminate this Agreement by giving notice thereof to the Registrant (such termination to be effective on the date specified by CIRA in the notice) in the event that:

- (b) the Registrant disrupts or abuses CIRA's registry services as determined by CIRA in its sole discretion, acting reasonably;
- (c) all of the Domain Name Registrations registered in the name of the Registrant have been cancelled or have expired;
- (d) the Registrant allows any other Person to use or operate any Domain Name Registration or applies to register a Domain Name as agent for, or on behalf of, a third party in any manner whatsoever which contravenes Section 3.1(j) of this Agreement; or
- (e) the designation by the government of Canada of CIRA to manage, operate and control the Registry is terminated or CIRA is no longer recognized at the international level as having the exclusive authority to operate the Registry;

6.16 Termination Due to Dissolution, Bankruptcy, Amalgamation, Change of Name etc. In the event that:

- (a) the Registrant is insolvent or bankrupt or subject to the provisions of the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) or any other similar legislation of any jurisdiction, or makes a proposal under such legislation, or goes into liquidation, either voluntarily or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, or makes a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors;
- (b) the Registrant ceases to carry on business in the normal course, dissolves or is wound up;
- (c) a receiver or other official having similar functions is appointed over a substantial portion of the assets of the Registrant; or 6.19 Termination to Result in Cancellation of all Domain Names. The termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.15, Section 6.16 or Section 6.17 shall result in the automatic cancellation of all Domain Name Registrations in the name of the Registrant.

In addition, the Registrant is responsible for any errors made by the Registrant's Registrar or any such agent.

11.2 Heading and Table of Contents. The division of this Agreement into Articles and Sections and the insertion of headings are for convenience of reference only and will not affect the construction or interpretation of this Agreement.

All notices will be deemed to have been given and received on the date on which they are sent.

11.6 Time of Essence. Time will be of the essence of this Agreement in all respects.

11.7 Further Assurances. Each party will promptly do, execute, deliver or cause to be done, executed and delivered all further acts, documents and things in connection with this Agreement that the other party may reasonably require, for the purposes of giving effect to this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Registrant agrees from time to time at CIRA's request: (i) to execute and deliver to CIRA a paper version of the then current version of this Agreement; and (ii) to confirm the Registrant's agreement and acceptance of the then current version of this Agreement (including the applicable Registry PRP) in accordance with the applicable Registry PRP.

11.8 Successors and Assigns. CIRA may assign or transfer all or any part of its rights and obligations under this Agreement to any Person. CIRA shall provide the Registrant and the Registrant's Registrars with 30 days prior notice of any such assignment or transfer. The Registrant shall not assign or transfer, whether absolutely, by way of security or otherwise, all or any part of its rights or obligations under this Agreement without the prior written consent of CIRA, which consent may be arbitrarily and unreasonably withheld and any such purported assignment or transfer, or attempt to so assign and transfer without CIRA's prior written consent, shall be of no force and effect. In no event shall the Registrant or the Registrant's administrators, executors or legal representatives be permitted to assign or transfer the rights or obligations of the Registrant under this Agreement to any Person who does not meet the Canadian Presence Requirements for Registrants.

11.9 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the applicable Registry PRP and the Legal Notice which are incorporated by reference herein) constitutes the entire agreement between the parties pertaining to the subject matter of this Agreement and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations and discussions, whether oral or written. There are no conditions, warranties, representations or other agreements between the parties in connection with the subject matter of this Agreement (whether oral or written, express or implied, statutory or otherwise) except as specifically set out in this Agreement.

11.10 Waiver. A waiver of any default, breach or non-compliance under this Agreement is not effective unless in writing and signed by the party to be bound by the waiver. No waiver will be inferred from or implied by any failure to act or delay in acting by a party in respect of any default, breach or non-observance or by anything done or omitted to be done by the other party. The waiver by a party of any default, breach or non-compliance under this Agreement will not operate as a waiver of that party's rights under this Agreement in respect of any continuing or subsequent default, breach or non-observance (whether of the same or any other nature).

11.11 Severability. Any provision of this Agreement which is prohibited or unenforceable in any jurisdiction will, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such prohibition or unenforceability and will be severed from the balance of this Agreement, all without affecting the remaining provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of such provision in any other jurisdiction.

11.12 Governing Law. This Agreement will be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Province of Ontario and the laws of Canada applicable in that Province and will be treated, in all respects, as an Ontario contract. 11.13 Attornment. The Registrant agrees that: (a) any action or proceeding instituted by the Registrant relating to this Agreement or its dealings with CIRA shall be brought in a court of competent jurisdiction in the City of Ottawa in the Province of Ontario and, for that purpose, the Registrant now irrevocably and unconditionally attorns and submits to the jurisdiction of such Ontario court; (b) the Registrant will not oppose the enforcement against it in any other jurisdiction of any judgment or order duly obtained from an Ontario court as contemplated by this Section 11.13. The Registrant agrees that CIRA may, in CIRA’s sole discretion, bring any action or proceeding relating to this Agreement in a court of competent jurisdiction in any jurisdiction in which the Registrant is incorporated, registered or resident or in which the Registrant has a place of business or in a court of competent jurisdiction in the City of Ottawa in the Province of Ontario. In any such event, the Registrant agrees that (i) it irrevocably waives any right to, and will not, oppose any such action or proceeding on any jurisdictional basis, including forum non conveniens; and (ii) it will not oppose the enforcement against it of any judgment or order duly obtained from any such court as contemplated by this Section 11.13.

11.14 Force Majeure.

(1) If, as a result (in whole or in part) of Force Majeure (as defined below), either party fails to perform or comply with any of its obligations under this Agreement, such failure will not constitute a default under or breach of this Agreement or give rise to any liability. The time for performing or complying with the obligation in question will be extended by a period equal to the period during which the Force Majeure operates to prevent (in whole or in part) compliance. The party whose performance is affected by the event of Force Majeure will promptly give notice to the other party of the occurrence of any Force Majeure which prevents performance or compliance with an obligation under this Agreement.

(2) For the purposes of this Agreement, “Force Majeure” means any cause beyond the reasonable control of the party seeking to take advantage of such Force Majeure, including, without limitation, any strike, lock-out, labour dispute, act of God, inability to obtain labour, utilities or services, acts of any government authority, enemy or hostile actions, sabotage, war, blockades, insurrections, riots, epidemics, washouts, nuclear and radiation activity or fallout, civil disturbances, explosions, fire or other casualty, unanticipated loads of transactions in the Registry system, breaches of security, computer viruses, faults in third party software and equipment and degradation or failure of telecommunications services; provided that if any such event is reasonably foreseeable by the party seeking to take advantage of such Force Majeure, such party shall have taken all reasonable steps within its reasonable control to avoid the occurrence of such Force Majeure.

11.15 Remedies Cumulative. The rights and remedies of CIRA under this Agreement are cumulative and no exercise or enforcement by CIRA of any right or remedy hereunder shall preclude the exercise or enforcement by CIRA of any other right or remedy hereunder or to which it is otherwise entitled by law to enforce.

11.16 Language. The parties to this Agreement have required that this Agreement and all deeds, documents and notices relating to this Agreement, be drawn up in the English language. Les parties aux présentes ont exigé que le présent contrat et tous autres contrats, documents ou avis afférents aux présentes soient rédigés en langue anglaise.
